12.1.21	Paul.	Hi Derek, would you please remove my name from all risk assessments, as I said last night I don't prepare risk assessments. If I need to refer to an assessment for a particular reason it would have been completed in advance by somebody suitably qualified, not me.	Amended prepared by me

15.1.21	Steve R	I agree about not having names against risk assessments when that person does not prepare them. However, I do feel that there should be something against each one, but it should be the post name (eg Health & Safety Director) of the area responsible for ensuring that the relevant risk assessments are in place. This does not mean that the person holding that position prepares the risk assessments, they do however need to ensure that a risk assessment is in place.	Prefer name, as in future when it comes to review, we won't know who prepared in the first place. Added Director responsible for their area, as per drafted Health & Safety Policy 30/1/21
1/12/23	Derek S	Reviewed no changes	None
